Richard Winterhalter
Town Clerk of the Town of Amity

Supervisor Reynolds introduced Jeff Luckey and gave him the floor. Mr. Luckey made a presentation regarding how emergency funds are allocated for storm damage based on when storms occur. Damage reported during a period in which FEMA has allowed as a time when funds would be available can be added to if subsequent storms cause more damage to an already damaged area.

Mr. Luckey also explained why the Town of Amity was not eligible for storm damage funds.

The Town Board asked several questions for clarification.

Mr. Luckey left a package for the Supervisor which outlines procedures required to be followed in order to request assistance. 1993 is the number of the disaster that has been declared for the April storm Damage.

Councilman Presutti asked if Wes Cline had obtained a building permit for his commercial Building. Clerk Winterhalter answered that he had.

Councilman Presutti inquired about the progress at the former Bulk Tanner building. Supervisor Reynolds indicated that a meeting is to be conducted between John Claus and Supervisor Reynolds.
